This agreement is between the above-named company (hereafter referred to as Home Inspector) and Complete Appliance Protection, Inc. (hereafter referred to as CP).

The 90-Day Guarantee will be purchased at the price of $15/inspection, plus any applicable sales taxes. CP may change the price with 60 days notice.

The Home Inspector agrees to provide the 90-Day Guarantee to each of his/her home inspection clients. He/she will report the client's name, address, phone number, email address, and the date of the home inspection, along with any comments on specific failures found. CP will not sell the client information to any third party or use it to sell other third-party products to them. This information must be submitted through the CP website, or through a participating partner (OREP or HomeBinder) no later than midnight on the Monday following the inspection. The Home Inspector will be billed through the same company they report through.

Please select the method by which you will report and be billed for the 90-Day Guarantee:

CP website OREP HomeBinder

Those reporting through the CP website will be charged via credit card monthly. Electronic statements will be provided to the Home Inspector prior to payment being collected (do not complete the following if reporting through OREP or HomeBinder).

CP will provide the Home Inspector with a digital 90-Day Guarantee flyer for his/her clients. Hard copy flyers are available upon request. Please email amy@completehomewarranty.com for a complimentary supply.

The Home Inspector is required to have a valid email address and company website. The 90-Day Guarantee product must be featured on the Home Inspector's website, along with a link back to the CP home page.

Either CP or the Home Inspector may terminate this agreement by providing 7 days notice to the other party. The Home Inspector is still responsible for any charges incurred prior to termination.
